Aloha Katy,

Please confirm if there should be a program code in Banner. According to the Honolulu catalog (<http://www.honolulu.hawaii.edu/sites/www2.honolulu.hawaii.edu/files/catalog-2014-2015.pdf>, pg. 92), there is a Certificate of Competence program in Naval Facilities Engineering Command, which used to be coded as a certificate of completion (CC-APTR). As part of the CC to CO conversion, it was noted that this particular CC was not to be converted due program to be deleted through curriculum committee process - see attachment.

Please let me know.

Mahalo,
Princess

Princess,

Okay, double checking on this one.

Thanks,
Katy

Hi Princess,
I checked the curriculum files and in January 2014, the Chancellor approved the Program Modification for Applied Trades (NAVFAC) from Certificate of Completion to Certificate of Competence. Please convert. Thank you.

It is not eligible for FA.

I'm checking on program length. It's only 10 credits, which a person could do in one semester....but there's also this 640 hours of work experience.

Renette,

Could you send me a copy of the approval, please, for my file?

Thank you!
