SUBJECT: Request for a New Banner Subject Code (QHS)

SPECIFIC ACTION REQUESTED:

It is requested that the interim Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs approve the creation of a new Banner Subject Code, "QHS", for JABSOM Quantitative Health Sciences (QHS) curriculum development and offering.

RECOMMENDED EFFECTIVE DATE: May 2017

ADDITIONAL COST: None

PURPOSE: To facilitate the development and offerings of quantitative health science courses at JABSOM.

BACKGROUND: Rigorous study design and quantitative expertise have a critical role in the long-term success of a clinical and translational research and education enterprise. In recent years, JABSOM has built a critical mass of quantitative health science experts in the Department of Complementary & Integrative Medicine. The department faculty is in the process of modifying and developing a curriculum of quantitative health courses (e.g., biostatistics, bioinformatics, clinical trials, health services research). A banner subject code of "QHS" will better reflect the nature and contents of materials covered in these QHS courses. It will provide us with an identity for these offerings, allow us to develop a curriculum structure, and facilitate the marketing of these QHS courses as a stand-alone degree program (to be developed) or in concert with existing graduate and undergraduate degree programs.

ACTION RECOMMENDED:

It is recommended that the interim Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs approve the creation of "QHS" as a new Banner Subject Code for JABSOM quantitative health sciences curriculum development and offering.
