Hi, Russell, got questions from IRAO regarding ASNS

HonCC has identified University College as ASNS's college (HonCC has four colleges--University College, Transportation and Trade, Communication and Services, and Pacific Aeronautics Training)

The question is under University College, what department does ASNS fall under...liberal arts? If not under liberal arts, HonCC can request that a new department be established.

Then just to confirm, look at the program, major, concentration codes in Princess's message. Are they accurate?

Suzette
